Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurLOLAWhen several paths cross, some call it destiny. But destiny is only a word. Lurking deep inside us, profound forces are at work. Obscure urges move Joseph, the bad boy, William, the trader in such a hurry, Lubomir, the eloquent midget with a big idea, and Lola, the superb avenger, addicted to the songs of Billie Holiday and never far from her black Harley Davidson. She is haunted by a diabolic plan and bound by a sacred promise made to her self when she was a little girl. She has suffered deeply but feels that nothing sustains like hate. There is also Antoine, the rotten psychiatrist who loves port, will adroitly unveil the secrets of your soul, but remain blind to his own. Does anyone still honestly believe in free will? It's so easy to rationalize one's behavior after the fact. Let's open our minds and observe, wary of our unconscious assumptions, and ask ourselves if the characters in this story could have acted much differently? Also ask yourself if, in spite of her deeds, it is possible not to love diabolical Lola.Prsentation de l'diteurLOLAWhen several paths cross, some call it destiny. But destiny is only a word.
